THE DAILY MEMPHIS AVALANCHE.

By Gallaway, Hampton & Co. MEMPHIS, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1867. (Volume Nine—Number 222

THE DAILY AVALANCHE

Maggie Mitchell, when a little girl, was engaged to sweep certain portions of Barnum's Museum.

Susan Denin has assumed the management of the opera house at Leavenworth, Kansas.

The cashier of the Exchange Bank, Howell, Michigan, absconded the other day, leaving the bank funds minus $10,000. He is but eighteen years old.

South Bend, Indiana, the home (and ward) of Schuyler Colfax, has elected a Democratic Councilman. Heretofore it has been a Radical disunion ward.

In Augusta, Maine, where Pillsbury, the Democratic candinate resides, his gain was 387. In Brunswick, where the Radical candidate lives, Chamberlain lost 246.

A set of six twins in one family may be seen airing in Hyde Park, London, on pleasant mornings. The anti-marrying society hires them for continual parade.

Mr. Hunt, a nephew to Governor Brownlow, arrived in Nashville on Monday, from Knoxville, and reported that the Governor was lying very ill at his residence in Knox[illegible].

General Canby has [illegible] quarters in Sickles' late residence [illegible] comfortable "large number of ladies, [illegible] only a plea[illegible] of the oldest families," have [illegible]

Dr. A. Enlow, [illegible] notice the first President Lincoln, dropped [illegible] meeting to [illegible] Kentucky, on Friday [illegible] up some medicine for a [illegible]

The Atlanta Intelligencer [illegible] funds have been leased in that city for the term of five years, to be occupied as a military garrison. This looks as if Pope regarded his dictatorship as permanent.

Returns to the Attorney General's office show that large numbers of the Southern people are taking the oath under the recent amnesty proclamation in order that they may register and vote.

Miss Charlotte Thompson, the popular young actress, is at present entertaining the theater goers of Pittsburg in the new sensation comeday of "Caste." She sustains the role of Esther Eccles.

It is reported from Havana, that in answer to the complaint of the committee of storekeepers that the taxes were too heavy, the authorities answered there were bayonets enough in Havana to enforce the collection of them.

Captain John P. Campbell, one of the oldest, wealthiest, most enterprising and useful citizens of Christian county, died at his residence in Hopkinsville, Kentucky, on Friday last, in the eighty-ninth year of his age.

A little boy in Portland told his father he was a fool. On being reprimanded by his mother and required to say he was sorry, he ran to the insulted parent and exclaimed, "Papa, I'm sorry you's a fool."

The South Carolina papers notice the death of Wm. Gregg, sr., President of the Graniteville Manufacturing company, near Augusta. He was one of the most useful men in the South, and his death is a serious public loss.

The Pope has resolved to call a general council, to be composed of dignitaries of the Catholic church from all parts of the world. Seven Cardinals have been named by His Holiness to make the preliminary arrangements.

General Canby, commander of the Carolinas, has issued an order in relation to jurors. Those only who are registered voters, and who shall have paid taxes for the current year, are qualified to serve as jurors. The property qualification is entirely abrogated.

Registration returns from North Carolina indicate that in the western part of the State more voters will be registered than the total vote of 1860. The proportion of white to black was six to five. The colored vote will increase the total over that of 1860 by at least fifteen per cent.

The fillibustering against Mexico, organized at Havana, turns out to have been a swindle of a Pennsylvanian named Lehman, who, after deluding a number of Germans out of a snug sum of money, suddenly disappeared.

A Marshal (Texas) paper reports the murder of Mrs. Bonfoey, wife of Judge Davis B. Bonfoey, Collector of Internal Revenue for that district, who is himself in custody at Jefferson, charged with the murder of his late assistant, Colonel W. H. Fowler. There is no clue to the murder of Mrs. Bonfoey.

A number of ex-officers of the army, who have suffered dismissal from the service by the arbitrary course of Stanton, are in Washington presenting their cases to General Grant. In the majority of instances, the facts in their favor are so overwhelming that they will be reinstated, and then honorably mustered out.

Accompanying the President's proclamation enjoining obedience to the Constitution and laws, passed in pursuance thereof, upon all officers, civil and military, circulars were issued on Thursday by the Secretary of the Interior and the Postmaster General, enjoining on their respective Departments strict attention to its requirements.

Thirty women in Montgomery, Alabama, with children, numbering ninety-six in the aggregate, published a card in the papers of that city, in which they declare that they are suffering for the absolute necessaries of life, and can get no work with which to support themselves and their helpless children. They state that they have been receiving assistance from the United States Government and from Dr. Rose, but these sources have been closed.

The dedication of the National Cemetery at Antietam took place Thursday with imposing ceremonies. The corner stone of the monument was laid by the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Masons of Maryland. Ex-Governor Bradford was the orator of the day. He paid a glowing tribute to the genius of McClellan, who, on that bloody field, wrested victory from the jaws of defeat. President Johnson made a few remarks. Salutes were fired during the procession and at the close of the proceedings, and everything passed off well.

Negroes voted for the first time in Virginia on the 16th instant, when the citizens of Richmond voted on the question of subscribing $2,000,000 to the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad. The subscription was carried by over two thousand majority. The negroes voted for it en masse. The opponents of the measure intend contesting the legality of the election, on the ground that the negroes, under the supplemental reconstruction bill, had no right to vote except in case of elections for office, and also that the registration was not complete until the final revision of the lists, and therefore the negroes to-day were not registered voters.

The Montana Post says that an exploring party which had been sent to the head waters of the Yellowstone river, has just returned, and reports that for eight days the party traveled through a country emitting blue flame and a living stream of molten brimstone. The country was smooth and rolling, long level plains intervening between rolling mounds. On the summits of the rolling mounds were craters from four to eight feet in diameter, and everywhere on the level plains were smaller craters from four to six inches in diameter, from which streamed a blaze and a constant whistling sound. The hollow ground resounded beneath their feet as they traveled, and every moment seemed to break through. Not a living thing was seen in the vicinity. The explorers gave it the significant appellation of Hell.

THURSDAY'S NOON DISPATCHES.

The Maryland Constitutional Election.

Edwin Booth is again Refused the Body of his Brother.

Medical Relief from the North to the Yellow Fever Districts.

BALTIMORE, September 19.—The election for the adoption of the new constitution took place yesterday. The total vote in this city was 51,618. For the constitution, 14,340; against it, 15,478. The vote is about 800 short of that of 1866. Annapolis gives 577 for the constitution, and 718 against it. The majority for the constitution in the State will not be less than 20,000.

Edwin Booth is recovering and is considered safe from the threatened loss of his arm. He has again applied for the remains of his brother, pleading very earnestly that his mother being very aged desires to recover the dead body, so that she may later it before she dies near that of his distinguished father, who is buried near this city. His request has been denied.

NEW YORK, September 19.—The New York Academy of Medicine met last evening, and adopted resolutions in favor of extending speedy relief to the sufferers of the south, and complimenting the United States army surgeon on their devotion to duty at the places where the epidemic is raging, and appointed a committee to take active measures for sending aid to the afflicted.

General SHARP, who went to Europe in connection with the claims for damages done by the Confederate cruiser Sumter, has arrived in Washington, and is now engaged in making out his report to the Secretary of State, which, it is expected, will be made public next week.

ALBANY, N. Y., September 19.—A caucus of the Republican members of the convention has determined to make an effort to finish business by the 10th of October, and submit the new Constitution to the people at the November election.

RICHMOND, September 19.—The voting on the subscription to the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad closed yesterday, without altering the result of the previous day. About 2,000 black votes were thrown out owing to the fact that the negroes had forgotten the names they registered by, and had handed in their votes under different names.

NEW YORK, September 19—12 m.—Gold opened at 145¾ and has since declined to 144¾. Cotton quiet but steady.

AUGUSTA, GEORGIA, September 18.—An inoffensive white citizen was set upon and badly cut this evening by soldiers, who, it is supposed, took him for a negro.

LIVERPOOL, September 18—p m.—Cotton very active; sales 20,000 bales; uplands 9½d; Orleans 9¾d.

LONDON, September 18.—Consols 94¾; 5-20's 72¾; Illinois Central 77¼; Erie 44¾.

One hundred and seventy lodges of Arapahoe Indians have offered to surrender to the Government.

The corn crop in Kentucky is more promising and better than had been anticipated. The stock have suffered for want of convenient water, but there was upward tendency in bacon, pork and lard. A new bill of lading had been determined on above, but Louisville will resist unless some provision is made for the old books. The Kirby Smith line of telegraph was formally announced.

Since the arrival of the peace commissioners at Fort Larned, the Indians have broken into fierce hostilities. Five stage stations between Hays City and Fort Wallace were attacked on Friday. Forty mules and horses were captured, one man killed and several wounded. Monday a Government train of forty wagons, between Hays City and Ellsworth was arrested, thirty mules and horses captured, two drivers killed and one wounded. Five thousand dollars in greenbacks was captured. The stage was attacked Monday morning, and a number of outrages committed. Large bodies of Indians are all along the road, and threaten total destruction to travel. They are burning the hay and grass all the distance between Hays City and Ellsworth. The troops are ordered to act on the defensive, and no Indians are killed or injured.

The robbery of the Blue Hill Bank, at Milton, Lower Falls, Massachusetts, on Thursday noon, was executed with remarkable neatness and dispatch. The bank is in the heart of the village. The assistant cashier, H. F. Tolman, had just gone to his house, next door; when three men drove up to the bank in a buggy, passed up stairs to the business room, and one of them presented a ten dollar bill to Mr. E. J. Bispham, asking change for it. While the cashier was making the change, another of the party stepped through the door of the counter and presented a pistol at his head. Mr. Bispham stamped on the floor and called loudly for help, when the man with the pistol struck him upon the temple, felling him to the floor. A gag was instantly crammed in his mouth, handcuffs placed on his wrists, and his legs tied together. Meanwhile, the third robber rifled the cash drawer and the vault, taking about ten thousand dollars in cash, and a small tin trunk of special deposits, the value of which was not ascertained. The robbers then started to leave, locking the bank door behind them. The call of the cashier for help had been heard across the street, and a citizen, going to see what was the matter, met the thieves on the stairs. He found the door locked, and, with exceptional stupidity, set about finding means of entrance, instead of raising an alarm and having the robbers arrested. As a consequence, the party got clear away from town without interruption.

Improvements on the Upper Mississippi.

There are two great obstructions to the navigation of the Upper Mississippi—the Keokuk rapids and those just above Rock Island. The Government has authorized a survey of these rapids, with a view to the removal of some obstructions and the avoidance of others by canaling. On the lower or Keokuk rapids the work of improvement is to begin at once, the contract having already been awarded. A canal is to be constructed around the rapids seven and a half miles long and two hundred and fifty feet wide, where excavated through the rock, and three hundred feet wide where cut through earth. The water has now subsided so as to enable the contractor, under the energetic direction of General Wilson, of the Engineer Corps, to begin operations. Among the novel means used for the rock excavation on the Upper or Rock Island rapids, is an immense drill, weighing over four tons, which ploughs into the solid rock more than four feet at a single stroke. The work on the lower rapids is required by the contract to be finished in eighteen months.

Negro Candidate for Congress.

The New York Herald of Saturday publishes the following letter:

To the Editor of the Herald:

No doubt you have noticed before this reaches you that I am a candidate for Congress in the 4th district of Georgia; my views are fully set forth in the Macon Telegraph, Macon Georgia; The Colored People of Georgia have as a General thing decided to allow the whites the State offices and We the Colored, the Congressional offices, Therefore through the influence of my many friends both black & white I have consented to be their Candidate from the 4th district of Georgia, I am in favor of the Military Bill but am opposed to this unGodly tax upon Cotton & Tobacco, I am a colord Man, & was a Slave until freed by Pres't Lincoln's Proclamation, Now as your paper is read by many Georgians, & universaly over the states I wish you to give this a notice & you shall not lose nothing by so doing; Publish the above & State thus

ELLICK MAHALY, Colord,
A Candidate for Congress in the 4th district of Georgia.

P S—I have written Hon Thad Stephens of Pennsylvania on the subject. ELLICK MAHALY.

Mr. Greeley, the other day, received from the General Post Office the following dead letter, which had been more than two years wandering over the world in quest of the person addressed—"an anxious, apprehensive inquirer, then sojourning at Antwerp)—without finding him, and at last straggled back to the writer":

OFFICE OF THE TRIBUNE,
NEW YORK, July 25, 1865.

"FRIEND K: I write you barely to say that the thirst for blood aroused by President Lincoln's assassination still rages and palpitates for parole, as all military prisoners of lower grade had already been—and I fear no severity hereafter save to Jefferson Davis, and I hope even this will be averted. And so, please believe that we are getting on well, and shall get on, and proceed with your business as though we had again one country. Yours,

"HORACE GREELEY."

FRIDAY, : : : : : : : SEPTEMBER 20, 1867

NEAL'S State Gazette is out for a State Convention, and urges the Memphis and Nashville papers, as well as the press of the entire State, to "call for a Convention to be held at Nashville or Memphis on the last Monday in October next." It says:

Let the people of Tennessee, in Convention assembled, declare to the world that they are freemen; that they will no longer submit to a State despotism that robs us of a blessing that the President would confer upon us—a right that we enjoyed until Radicalism put a curse and a blight upon America! Let us call a convention of the people and blot from the statute books the odious law that now humiliate and enslave the people of Tennessee.

We should not hesitate to further this most laudable object, to the best of our ability, if it were not so palpable that the despot who tyrannizes over Tennessee would interpose his vile militia system to disrupt and scatter any organization of the kind that might assemble. We have heretofore discussed this subject, and while we agree that a "State despotism" is upon us, we do not know how we can throw off "the old man of the sea" who clings to our shoulders, and will not let go so long as he has power to remain there, howsoever irksome and disagreeable, and truly disadvantageous it may be to us. The call for a Convention must be seconded by a power in the Federal Government to back us. Congress will give us no assistance; on the contrary, the greatest oppression to the best of our people seems to obtain most favor with the oligarchy. We have no assurance that the President, although he may sympathize with us, will take upon himself more than the management of his own matters, without accumulating more troubles and difficulties than those by which he is surrounded. In view of all this, we are clearly of opinion that a Convention, called at the early day recommended, would be premature, might cause much trouble, and would be productive of no good. It may be the reaction which seems to have commenced may go on, and Ohio and Pennsylvania may speak in thunder tones to the madmen who are sapping the very foundation of our liberty; and New York will beyond question add hers to the general voice of indignation that is just now making itself heard above the shouts of confidence and expectation going up from the wigwams of the secret leagues. In such event, we may confide in the active interposition of the President, who will feel himself capable of sustaining the liberties of the people against the encroachment of Congress. Until something of the kind shall occur we may look in vain for aid and co-operation, to a power, or the shadow of a power that hesitates to eject the scoundrel HOLT from the Bureau of Military Injustice, and although removing SHERIDAN and SICKLES, permits the orders they issued, and for which they were ostensibly dismissed, to remain in force to be executed by their successors. We, therefore, cannot recommend the Convention proposed, at this time. It is not that we do not feel that indignities and outrages have been borne too long already; but a Convention would not liberate us. It would be regarded as seditious by BROWNLOW, and his militia would be ordered to disperse the assemblage. What remedy should we have? Mere resolutions would not hedge us as with a rampart. Resolutions and a home guard did not prevent the capture of Memphis, although they sounded well on paper. We must bide our time, and see if aught to our advantage shall grow out of the differences between Congress and the President—await the result of the elections to see if any hope may be built upon that. To fail would be worse than not to make the attempt. Let our friends have patience, but bear themselves resolutely. If a storm be brewing, await its bursting. We can gain nothing by acting prematurely, but may lose golden opportunities that will doubtless present themselves ere long, when it will be a more propitious time to act. We do not desire to be understood as opposing a Conservative Convention, but we do say, and do contend it can be deferred a little longer without detriment, unless to some of those restive spirits who aspire to figure in it.

R. H. THORNE, of Knoxville, Tennessee, has been nominated by SALMON P. CHASE, as Register in Bankruptcy for this District, as we are reliably informed. This nomination is nothing unless Judge TRIGG shall approve and appoint. Whether he will under the circumstances do so, remains to be seen. This nomination is most remarkable considering the printed circular issued from the office of the Chief Justice, purporting to instruct applicants for the position, as to what they should do in order to present themselves properly for nomination. In this circular the applicants were directed to sustain themselves by recommendations from the business men of the District, and from the members of the bar. In other words the circular, if it meant anything, told the applicant for the place that in order to get the nomination, he was to be backed by the strongest and worthiest local recommendations; and above all things the aforesaid circular indicated that the applicant must be a practicing attorney in this district. Now, in the nomination of THORNE, we undertake to say that the pledge contained in that circular is but a specimen of Radical faith, which is worse than Punic. It is a fact that THORNE, the nominee, is not a practicing lawyer in this district, if he ever was in any district. It is a fact that THORNE was backed by a local recommendation, utterly insignificant as compared with at least two other applicants, perhaps three. The indorsers of THORNE were ALVIN HAWKINS, D. NUNN, BROWNLOW, EATON, THOMAS R. SMITH, J. CHANDLER, H. MAYNARD, FIELDING HURST, JAMES S. FOWLER, W. H. CHERRY, A. G. TAYLOR, and General O. O. HOWARD. The community can at once see how many identified with this district and its interests indorsed this man. Why were the wishes of the great city of Memphis utterly ignored in this regard? The people of this city and the counties immediately bordering on Shelby have a more vital interest in this appointment than those anywhere else. How is it that our Conservative friend CHERRY indorsed this man who is so heavily backed by Radical names? Did he have any arrangement by which his bank—the Merchants' National—was to be the depository of bankrupt funds? Are we to be ridden to death and our substance eaten out by mere adventurers? Of course we did not expect any one other than a Republican to get the appointment, but let us at least have some one identical in interest with our community. We cannot, under all the circumstances, regard the nomination otherwise than as an insult to the whole community—especially as we understand that the committee at Washington called the Central Committee of the Republican party determined the appointment.

General Grant did not go to Antietam, but was unusually busy at the War Department. It appears that no invitation reached him to accompany the Presidential party.

There seems to be a general agreement of amity between the United States soldiers stationed at Augusta, Georgia, and the gentle freedmen of that locality. The telegraph, for the past week, has brought intelligence of frequent collisions between the two elements, sometimes amounting almost to a riot. On the night of the 17th instant the negroes threatened to attack the barracks, and the greatest excitement prevailed. Some sources declare that the white soldiers have been the aggressors, but no specific investigation has been made, as yet, to throw the light of truth upon the matter.

WASHINGTON, September 19.

Mr. Seward received Mr. Fo d, the British Charge d'Affaires, at four o'clock this morning, to confer upon the subject of the death of Sir Frederick Bruce. The Government and the British Legation have communicated the sad intelligence to London, and the arrangements for the funeral have been delayed, awaiting instructions from there. The flag upon the State Department is at half mast.

In view of the present relations between this Government and Great Britain, his death is looked upon as a serious calamity, as it is not seen how, under the existing temper of that nation, as exhibited by the press, he can be replaced.

ST. LOUIS, September 19.

It is estimated that the number of hostile Indians is 22,000, who are under the command of Red Cloud, chief of the upper Brule Sioux, who is reported to have said: "We don't want peace. When we at peace we a no good; now we are rich."

The Kiowas profess great friendship for the whites, and promise to urge upon the different Southern tribes to meet at a grand peace convention in October.

FROM EUROPE.

MANCHESTER, September 19.

Quite a serious riot occurred here to-day, resulting in the killing and wounding of several persons. While a strong police escort was conveying the Fenians recently arrested in this city, for the purpose of carrying them to the railroad from the jail, preparatory to their removal to Dublin for trial, it was attacked by a mob armed with clubs, stones and fire arms, and a desperate conflict ensued for a time, when the police finding the men too overpowered were obliged to give way. The prisoners were rescued by the mob and carried off in triumph. The city is now quiet.

One policeman was killed, and several wounded. Many of the rioters were also badly injured. A proclamation was immediately issued by the authorities offering a reward of £300, for the recapture of the prisoners.

Public Sale

OF

300 ACRES SUBURBAN LAND

ON TEN YEARS' CREDIT.

I PROPOSE to sell at public sale, to the highest bidder on THURSDAY, the 3d day of October, 1867, about three hundred acres Field and Forest Land, on my Homestead Tract, situated three miles east of Memphis, at the head of Union avenue, and lying between Central avenue and the Old State Line road. The most popular street improvements being now in process of construction in Memphis, good turnpikes or street railways on the roads leading from the city directly through the property; and soon to follow, thereby affording the most reasonable probability or its great and rapid enhancement of value.

In stating the advantages of this property, I would specially refer to the HEALTH of the locality, as having been always considered equal if not superior to that of any portion of the city environs; which fact the records of the neighborhood, and the provision made for CHURCH AND SCHOOL PRIVILEGES, combine to render it one of the most desirable points for a suburban residence which the vicinity of Memphis affords.

The TITLE to this property has been vested in my father and myself for thirty years without interruption and is free from any incumbrance.

The SUBDIVISION OF THE GROUNDS will be in lots of about Five Acres, according to plans to be seen at the office of the Auctioneers, and at evening will be opened and the lots numbered so as to be readily examined before the day of sale.

BEING DETERMINED TO SELL, I shall offer the following liberal

TERMS:

One-tenth Cash, the balance in TEN ANNUAL INSTALMENTS, with interest from date. Warranty Deeds given, and Trust Deeds taken, waiving redemption. These terms will make it very easy for any one to secure a pleasant Home, which must increase in value and comfort, as the growth of Memphis continues. N. M. TREZEVANT.

THE DISCOVERY OF THE AGE

NO material which has ever been discovered has effected greater benefits in the household economy than

McGILMSEY'S MAGIC SOAP.

It is a labor saving invention as well as an invaluable remedy in scurvy, scald head, eruptions of the skin and piles. Dandruff is removed from the head, the hair whitened and cleansed, plate and jewelry cleaned, stains effectually removed from carpets, furniture, clothes, paint, varnish are made with the greatest facility and economy to the material. It is a great saving of time and labor in washing clothes. It is the only known soap with which well can be cleansed with the ease of cotton or linen without fading or shrinking. It is the only known soap which will not injure the hands or the skin or the most delicate fabric. It possesses no deleterious quality in whatever. The world is challenged to produce a soap which possesses so many valuable properties, and which is so innocuous and safe. It is a home invention, and defies competition in any part of the world. It has become a necessity in Memphis, and its use is rapidly spreading throughout the country, and we eventually will extend the trade to the States North and South America, Europe, Asia, Africa and Oceanica.

Being desirous to supply Mr. McGILMSEY, Memphis, Tenn., and can soon be found at any respectable family grocery or drug store. The proprietor is determined that its manufacture shall keep pace with the rapidly extending demand for its use.

FRENCH MEDICINES PREPARED BY GRIMAULT & COMPANY

Chemists to His Imperial Highness Prince Napoleon.

THESE different medicines represent the most recent medical discoveries, founded on the principles of chemistry and therapeutics. They must not be confounded with secret or quack medicines, as their name sufficiently indicates their composition; under circumstance which has caused them to be appreciated and prescribed by the faculty in the whole world. They widely differ from those numerous medicines advertised in the public papers as able to cure every possible disease, as they are applicable only to but a very few complaints. The most stringent laws exist in France with regard to the sale of medical preparations, and only those which have undergone an examination by the Academy of Medicine, and have been proved efficacious, either in the hospitals or in the practice of the first medical men, are authorized by the government. This fact must be a guarantee for the excellency of Messrs. GRIMAULT & CO.'S medicines.

Dr. Leras' (Doctor of Medicine) Liquid Phosphate of Iron.

The newest and most esteemed medicine in cases of CHLOROSIS, PAINS IN THE STOMACH, DIFFICULT DIGESTION, DISENDOWMENT, ANÆMIA, GENERAL DEBILITY and POORNESS OF BLOOD. It is particularly recommended to regulate the functions of nature, and to all ladies of delicate constitution, as well as to persons suffering under any kind of debility whatever. It is the preservative of health par excellence in all warm and relaxing climates.

No More Cod Liver Oil—Grimault's Syrup of Iodized Horse Radish.

This medicine has been administered with the utmost success in the hospitals of Paris, as a perfect substitute for COD LIVER OIL, and has been found most beneficial in DISEASES OF THE CHEST, SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS, LIVER DISORDERS, GREEN SICKNESS, MU

COTTON COMING IN.—Times are getting brisk, money getting plenty, people becoming cheerful, cotton coming in. Those who send in cotton will, among the many clever cotton factors and commission merchants, find none who deserve to rank higher than Messrs. Taylor, Cole & Co., No. 13 Monroe street. Those who send to do business, they are good and reliable merchants, they are widely known among Southern people as true men and good fellows. They devote themselves to the interest of their patrons, they have every facility for getting it here promptly and cheap, they are perfectly reliable in all their business engagements.

PERSECUTION OF SALOON KEEPERS.—We are informed that those saloon keepers who were active in getting up an association to test the constitutionality of that special legislation which imposes excessive and unfair taxation on them are being subjected to a great deal of petty annoyance and persecution. They appealed to the courts and gave bonds to abide by the decision to be rendered. In this there was nothing that any good citizen might not do. Their action should not subject them to persecution. Those who seek to annoy them for appealing to the courts for justice should be denounced as enemies of justice, petty despots, who would fain deter people from claiming their legal rights. High minded Police Commissioners would in such cases use the propriety of awaiting a judicial determination before making new cases for the same cause against the same parties, or assuming to fine parties for violating that law relative to which an appeal had been taken to the courts. It is low vindictiveness or mercenary meanness that prowls about watching chances to make new cases against parties who have appealed to the courts to test the right of such case. We understand that in one case a saloon keeper, who had given bonds to pro ecute his appeal and await the action of the court, has been again and again arrested, fined and locked up in a filthy cell, through spite at his having appealed to the court in that one case for protection. The outrages were so gross and frequent that the courts finally grant d an injunction to prevent a continuance of the annoyances. If it was right for the court to grant an injunction, it would have been decent in the Police Commissioners to give no ground for asking such an injuncti n. There are in every police syst m subordinates who, to please their superiors, will commit any act of meanness, hoping thus to obtain promotion. These cahiffs, instead of attending to their legitimate business, preventing robberies and detecting burglars and thieves who infest the community, prowl about the places of business of those against whom the Police Commissioners are supposed to have grudges. They look through cracks, they peep into bank windows, they sneak around back yards, they send stool pigeons to investigate saloon keepers' into violations of the law, and they swear hard to make out cases. These Jerry Sneaks and Tom Peeps are favorites in the department: some of them get to be sergeants

ARREST OF THE SUPPOSED MURDERER OF DR. RAMSEY.—A few days ago a negro named Hill, who is almost a white man was arrested and brought before the Circuit C urt, by another negro named John Etherly, who charged Hill with having attempted to kill by snapping a cap at some one. Hill was discharged, and since his release Mr. Morton informed some one that he had gone out to the Parham place, on the Raleigh road, in the vicinity of where Dr. Ramsey was killed to get work, and while there was approached by Etherly who is a negro that worked on the place under Dr. Thomas, a colored man. Hill says Etherly proposed to go into a kind of joint-stock highway robbery partnership. Hill professed to be willing to go into such business, and he says that Etherly told him that he (Etherly) had killed Dr. Ramsey and made a good thing of it. Subsequently Hill declined to go into the robbing business, and Etherly had him arrested, as Hill alleges, on the charge of snapping the cap, but really because he would not go into the highway robbery partnership. The pal to whom Hill made this revelation told Sheriff Winters or some of his deputies, and Sheriff Winters, with his accustomed promptitude, had Etherly arrested. Hill was taken before the grand jury and repeated his statement, when a true bill was found against Etherly. Hill is locked up as a presenting witness, as he can't give bonds for his appearance. Etherly, when arrested, was found at the Parham place, and with Hill was brought into the city by Marre, who, however, has not yet obtained any corroborative evidence in the case. Our readers will remember the statement that a black came into the city a few days after the murder of Dr. Ramsey, and told some colored women that he had seen Ramsey murdered, but when he was questioned by the police denied the fact, and asserted that he had only heard of the circumstances of the murder. It would be curious if it should turn out that the negro who came into the city was Etherly. If he was a party to the murder there will doubtless be found numerous corroborative circumstances proving his guilt. As yet there is only Hill's statement. The Sheriff and his deputy deserve credit for their promptitude in working up this case.

Seventeen mackerels have, within the last fortnight, been arrested for lasciviou. Yet the Board of Aldermen don't think it necessary to take action on the Mayor's suggestion that a House of Refuge should be provided.

SYNOPSIS.

The regatta and boat race on Saturday afternoon will be a grand affair, and is attracting a great deal of attention.

The house of a Mr. Wool, on Washington street, was robbed of clothing and other articles worth seventy-five dollars.

A negress was arrested, yesterday, for stealing a lot of linen that was given to her by Mr. Lyle to wash.

Tim. Lord, a drunken fellow, fell upon a little child, named Sarah Bowles, on Beale street, yesterday, and hurt her badly.

Two negroes were arrested yesterday for stealing pocket handkerchiefs at the Varieties. One gave the name of Joe Boyd, and the other, Jim Wade.

The Hope and Atlantic base ball clubs played a match yesterday. The score, at the close, stood: Atlantic, twenty; Hope, sixty-three runs.

Tom Brown, a negro boy, was arrested yesterday for stealing ladies' shoes from Aaron Bradley, a colored man, who keeps a store on Dutoit street.

John Hoyt, a negro, was arrested for stealin a silver watch from Mr. Gray, who rooms in the Webster block, while employed to clean up the room.

A man who gave his name as Osgood is charged with stealing seventy-five dollars and a revolver from the house of Mr. Fees, on Poplar street. There have been several small larcenies at the same place recently.

John Simons, got valiant, got into a quarrel with Paul Kaske, who stabbed him with a knife, and then made his escape. Simons was taken to his residence, on Second, near Union street.

The two dun stallioned horses, with white manes and tails, belonging to C. H. Brackett & Co., who driven through the streets attract much attention. They are not perfect matches, but they make a very showy appearance.

As an evidence of ability of Forrest & Co., it is said that asking no advance and not having yet drawn a dollar of pay, they have done one hundred and thirty thousand dollars worth of work on Mad n street, Jefferson street and Charle ton avenue.

The law firm of Pickett & Ransom has been dissolved, and the office of the firm will hereafter be occupied by the new one of Hansen & Swingley. Mr. Swingley is a young lawyer of ability from Jackson, Tennessee.

The great sale of books belo ging to the late Mr. Morgan's library was began yesterday by Passmore & Co. The books brought generally fair prices, but among the purchasers many got bargains The sale will be continued every night until the whole library is disposed of.

It is reported that in a colored loyal league a few evenings since, one of the members, to show h s devotion to the party, declared "that if a mule was a member of de league, and was nominated for office, he would vote for de mule all de time rather than anybody else."

McBean & Co. have done paving to the amount of $188,413 50, on which there is still owing them by our citizens ninety-five thousand one hundred and eighty seven dollars. This certainly should be promptly paid, as the contractors have pushed forward the work with commendable energy.

The fact that the silver ware stolen recently from Weatherbee's saloon, was mysteriously found in a sandbank, and no arrest made, induced suspicion that there might be "other developments. The party suspected of having stolen the silver ware was arrested by a private watchman, and it is now alleged that he has, in police phraseology, "squealed," that is owned up, and has implicated a member of the police force in the affair.

A tableau not down in the bills came off on Wednesday night at the colored folks' celebration in Stillman Hall. In one scene the virtues and vices were personified. There was a round of applause for the virtues, and then remarks were made and then the tableau burst up, and every one on the platform and they didn't know who they were standing beside. One girl began to cry, and declared she was 'good as anybody else dat was dar." A great hubbub ensued and the fair broke up in great disorder. It won't do for the ministers of white politicians to come into "sporiable colored society."

The case of Mr. Milliken has attracted a good deal of attention in the United States Court. Judge Swayne was charging that full arguments should be presented, and objected to the case being submitted without argument, to be decided on merely technical grounds. The right to amend the officers' return so far as to state in full the pending order under which the arrest was made, was admitted. The right to amend the return by showing facts done under the mili ary order, was denied. Judge Swayne stated that the whole question turned upon the jurisdiction of the military authorities, involved the question whether the President had a right to proclaim peace, and whether parolis should be held binding until Congress formally declared the war at an end.

TASTE AND BEAUTY IN HATS.—There is no article of dress that gives so much character to the appearance of man as his hat. The nationality, the turn of mind, the character and in some degree the political opinions of a man are shown by his hat. In no country but America do Conservatives wear soft hats, and the various of styles found everywhere in America indicates the personal freedom that characterizes our institutions. More than twenty new styles of hats have been received and are for sale by Wheaton & Co., No. 199 Main street, Webster Block. They are the oldest hatters in the city, and they have a stock that is unsurpassed in amount, in variety of styles in the latest fashions, must commend itself to the public. DR. P. O. L. GRANT, one of the ablest of our physicians, does not believe that there is a single case of yellow fever in the city. The party suspected of having stolen the silver ware was arrested by a private watchman, and it is now alleged that he has, in police phraseology, "squealed," that is owned up, and has implicated a member of the police force in the affair.

OUR TURF DEPARTMENT.

Edited by the "Fat Contributor."

Answers to Correspondents.

From the Cincinnati Times, 17th.]

P. H. C. (Boston.) The following is left for Your decision: A bets B that the horse Pollyfox Can't build sixty rods of stone fence inside of 2-27½, with one hand tied behind him, to harness, in a game of 1,000 points, caroms. In case of a miss one (or Mrs. Cue, as the case may be), on the first bound with only two to go, what is trump? Answer. It do.

H. C. B. (Oriskany, New York.) The celebrated trotter Ethan Allen is not the Ethan Allen who captured Ticonderoga. That wasn't his forte.

Sawhorse (Providence, Rhode Island.) Dexter never went to school a day in his life; happened to go to horse race. He has been around a considerable, and shown a great deal of dexter-ity.

Giles (Westmoreland, New York.) Your idea of chesnut horses growing from horse chestnuts is preposterous. Horse pistols come up from Colt's revolvers, do they? You had better read some standard work on the horse. If you haven't any horse to read it on, then read it on foot.

Gambolier (Chicago), writes: Inform me of the best check rein. Answer: The best check rein that has been known for years occurred during the war, but it don't rain "checks" as much as it did. Any faro player can tell you that.

Kean (Buffalo), The "pale horse" never trotted to harness that we ever heard of. As for trotting against Time, he is death on it.

Anvil (Portland, Me.) Horse shoes are not obtained at the Horseshoe fall, Niagara. They are grown on horseshoe geraneums.

Free Press Bob, (Detroit.) Flora Temple wasn't out of the Mormon Temple, Salt Lake City. It is another family.

J. W. F. (Cleveland, O.) Will you please inform me how to make a "horse tamer?" Ans: Give the horse a dose of laudanum; that will make a horse tamer than any thing else, except shooting him.

Wait. Stocking (Albany, New York.) Troy hasn't produced any good horses in several years. When the Trojans were beaten so badly for the Helenic purse by the "Greek Horse," from Dublin, they became discouraged, and haven't done anything in the horse line since. The Greek Horse was sired by Agamemnon and dam'd by all Troy.

Subscriber (New Orleans.) Will you please decide the following:

Two horses are playing seven up. One horse turns up a jack, goes it alone to wagon, and makes a dead heat. The other horse orders up the umpire, straddles the blind, rolls off his spare, and comes in under one blanket. What is his pedigree? Answer: Discovered by Christopher Columbus in 1492.

Fetlock (Sheboygan.) Who has made the fastest time over a stone road? Answer: Old Put, when he beat the bottom out of the "rock's." He came out a neck ahead, although it was thought he wouldn't at one time. Shortly after that event a British racer, Major Andre ran for a big prize but was run on to the ground and killed.

Tucker (Rome, New York.) What causes heaves in horses? Answer: Sickness at the stomach. Horses are a good deal like human beings. If they ain't sick at the stomach they won't heave.

Oal bin (St. Louis.) My wife is teasing me to get a little sulky; where is the best place to get one? Answer: Right there, in St. Louis. Let your wife receive attentions from some other man, and if you don't get a little sulky you are different from most men.

Brick (La Crosse, Wisconsin.) Your plan for warming a stable in the winter by setting fire to it, might work if the stable was sufficiently insured. A neighbor of ours built himself a splendid stable last winter, furnished with all the modern improvements, gas, hot and cold water, etc. One of his creditors got out an execution on it and he—he warmed it.

EXTENSIVE SMUGGLING PLOT DISCOVERED.

Terrible Wreck of a Railway Train.

Telegraph Correspondence Chicago Evening Journal.]

DETROIT, September 16.

An extensive smuggling operation was brought to light here on Saturday and fully developed this morning. Persons living over the border, in connection with several employes of the Great Western railway, have been conveying liquors from Ontario to the United States in about the following style: They would fill trunks with whisky, brandy, etc., at Windsor, and bring it to this city as unclaimed American baggage. Checked them on the ferryboat, paid agents of the smugglers, would change the checks on the boat, and then, after the trunks had remained here a day or so, would be rechecked to Rochester, New York, or other places East, while the corresponding check was forwarded to the place of destination, or given to the owner himself, who was sometimes at the elbow of the baggage man to see the affair properly managed. Adam Arzedoff and George Stotts, both baggage men on the railway ferry steamer Union, have been arrested, and will probably let the whole secret out. It is believed that parties holding high positions on the Great Western are interested in these smuggling operations. The officers of the road are of course wholly innocent, and have offered to lend every assistance to arrest the offenders.

On Saturday evening a trackman on the Detroit and Milwaukee railway, near Shepherdsville station, felt a gravel car on the track. A special freight coming east ran into it. A locomotive and ten cars were thrown from the track, the latter being demolished and having the contents scattered in all directions. The locomotive turned upside down in a ditch, and the tender was thrown entirely over it. A more perfect wreck of a railroad train I never saw. Engineer Wm. Birdsell left his post and ran out to the forward part of the engine to see what effect the collision would have on the gravel car. He got there just as the pilot of the engine struck, and was thrown a distance of forty feet, but strange to say, not hurt. The fireman jumped and saved his life. Nobody was seriously hurt.

What a White Soldier Says.

Mr. Congressman Ashley, who represents the Toledo, Ohio, district in Congress, and who has made himself so conspicuous in connection with the impeachment of the President, recently made a speech in Bryan, Williams county, which, we believe, is in his own Congressional district. After hearing that speech, an indignant white soldier writes to the Cincinnati Enquirer as follows:

So great has been my prejudice against the Democratic party that I have not even allowed myself to read yours or any other Democratic paper. But I take pleasure in informing you that I have "changed my base" since hearing the speech of Jim Ashley in the Court House the other day. When he told me and my brave comrades in arms—as he did tell us—that if we would not vote for that cursed abomination, nigger suffrage, we "looked like cowards, would walk to the polls like cowards, would vote like cowards, and are cowards," he told a cowardly lie, and if he should tell me so personally, then, so help me God, I would cram the infernal liedown the throat of the poor "fanny" bloat. And I dare only to say for myself and a corps of my comrades, that a party composed of men who will sit and applaud such vile slang as the Republicans did at the meeting to-day shall never have another vote from us.

Great God! only think of it! Because we happen to think that white men are competent to run the government we must bear the charge hurled in our faces by a stay at home Knownothing! "You look like cowards, you will walk to the polls like cowards, you will vote like cowards, and you are cowards."

With us Ashleyism and all other kinds of Radicalism are played out.

Yours, for the clean Democratic ticket.

A Card.

WE will at once rebuild our warehouse, and will have it completed by the 15th of September, but by the first day of October next we will be ready to receive goods on store. The goods will be divided into five distinct compartments by brick walls, and covered with tin. Those who have parcels to go on the line, and those who may have proposed to do so the approaching one, may rest assured we will be ready to receive them.

We design establishing a Cotton Compress in connection with our warehouse, on an adjacent lot, which will be ready by the 1st of October or sooner. The proximity of our establishment to the Fire proofed the handling of cotton so convenient that we can transfer cotton for shipment by river free of drayage. The advantage of the position is equal to one dray per on all cotton sent for compression from other warehouses, which we can accommodate. Those who have cotton stored here can have it transferred to our warehouse. It would be as easy for us to transfer it from our shed to the Compress as to turn it out in the ordinary way for transfer by drays.
